

American Subcontractors Association - San Antonio

seminar series

Lien & Bond Claims: Avoid the Tricks and Traps

Don't let the tricks and traps of Texas lien and bond claims catch you unprepared! This seminar will focus on the deadlines and requirements for filing lien and bond claims, review forms for making the claims, and how to avoid common mistakes. Presenters Bethany Beck and Tom Walthall specialize in speaking about these topics and are known for making the information accessible and interesting.

Date: Wednesday, Aug 10, 2022

Time: 2pm - 5pm

Location: The Petroleum Club of San Antonio / 8620 N. New Braunfels #700 / SA TX

Attendee Fee:

ASA Members & Sponsors - $50 before Aug 3 / $60 after Aug 3

Non-Members - $65 before Aug 3 / $75 after Aug 3

Cancellations must be received by Wednesday, Aug 3

Bethany F. Beck Sanderford & Carroll, Partner

Bethany has experience representing subcontractors, suppliers, general contractors and design professionals in various aspects of construction law. She focuses her practice on handling construction litigation, lien and bond claims, commercial collections, violations of the Texas Trust Fund Act and construction defect claims. In addition to her law practice, she is also a frequent speaker on Construction and Commercial topics.

SANDERFORD
& CARROLL, P.C.
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS

Thomas J. Walthall Sanderford & Carroll, Partner

Tom is experienced in court trials and arbitration in the construction law area. He also regularly handles delay/impact litigation, Miller Act litigation, bankruptcy discharge litigation, and construction defect litigation. Tom's practice includes counseling clients in the negotiation and preparation of subcontracts, construction contracts, purchase and supply orders and related construction documents. He has represented general contractors and subcontractors, individually and through their insurance carriers, in a variety of law suits.